

Data privacy policy

Although The Luton Ukimaniacs is run as a non-profit making club, it is still important that we comply with data protection rules including the latest GDPR regulations.

This privacy policy sets out how we use and protect any personal information that you give us when you join this club.

We are committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

We may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy is effective from 12th May 2019.

What we may collect

Contact information, usually your email address will suffice but we may also collect your name and telephone number.

What we do with the personal data information we gather

Keep you informed of any future events

To provide you with information

Changes to the way you access music for the sessions

Changes relating to the way the club is run

The rare occasions when there may not be a club session for a particular week

Legal Basis of Processing

The processing of your personal data is necessary for the legitimate interests of the The Luton Ukimaniacs club.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

How we use cookies

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve the website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to other websites

The website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave this site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Sharing of your personal information

We will not share, sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties.

Data Subject Rights

You are entitled to details of personal information which we hold about you.

A right of correction if any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete

A right to erasure (or 'to be forgotten')

Restrict processing of your personal data or to object to processing

Please contact lutonukimaniacs@gmail.com, if you wish to exercise any data subject rights.

You also have a right to complain to a supervisory authority. In the UK this is the Information Commissioner at <https://ico.org.uk>

Retention of Data

We may delete your personal data if there is no reason for us to retain it, for example, if you have not attended a club session for 12 months and we assume that you no longer wish to remain a member.

Photographic Images

In order to enhance the website, occasionally photographs and videos may be used from events that we as club take part in. We don't intend to identify individuals in photos but a photo is considered as personal data so if there are any photos on this website that you do not want to be shown then you have the right to ask for them to be removed. Please write to lutonukimaniacs@gmail.com
